

Habitat Readiness Education

Discover new skills and knowledge in our upcoming series of classes, held every third Wednesday and Saturday for four months, starting August 2024!

Are you dreaming of becoming a Habitat homeowner? Take the first step with our Habitat Readiness Education Program!

This series of 4 classes is designed specifically for those interested in becoming a Habitat Housing program applicant.

Join us, starting with "So You Want to Be a Habitat Applicant?" followed by "All Things Habitat." Dive deeper into financial literacy with classes on understanding your credit report, managing debt, and calculating your debt-to-income ratio. Conclude the series with sessions on Financial Wellbeing and "Do I Need a Budget?" to empower yourself with essential financial skills.

Note: If you've previously attended these classes with us, there's no need to attend again.
